

UNITED STATES DISTRICT COURT
FOR THE EASTERN DISTRICT OF CALIFORNIA

SHAUNTEZ K. ROCKEMORE,
Plaintiff,
v.
A. VASQUEZ, et al.,
Defendants.

No. 1:21-cv-01339 GSA (PC)
ORDER GRANTING PLAINTIFF'S REQUEST TO EXTEND DISCOVERY AND DISPOSITIVE MOTION DEADLINES
(ECF No. 34)
DISCOVERY AND MOTION TO COMPEL
DEADLINES EXTENDED TO MARCH 4, 2024
DISPOSITIVE MOTION DEADLINE
EXTENDED TO MAY 2, 2024

Plaintiff, a state prisoner proceeding pro se and in forma pauperis, has filed this civil rights action seeking relief under 42 U.S.C. § 1983. The matter was referred to a United States Magistrate Judge pursuant to 28 U.S.C. § 636(b)(1)(B) and Local Rule 302.

Before this Court is Plaintiff's motion to extend the close of discovery and dispositive motion deadlines by thirty days. ECF No. 34 at 3. Defendants have filed a statement of non-opposition to Plaintiff's motion. ECF No. 36. For the reasons stated below, the motion will be granted.

1       I.     REQUEST TO EXTEND DISCOVERY AND DISPOSITIVE MOTION

2           DEADLINES

3           A.    Plaintiff's Motion

4       Currently, discovery is scheduled to end and motions to compel are due on February 2,
5       2024, and the parties' dispositive motions are to be filed by April 2, 2024. See ECF No. 24 at 4
6       (discovery and scheduling order). In support of the motion to extend the discovery and
7       dispositive motion deadlines, Plaintiff states that he anticipates being transferred to a different
8       institution. See ECF No. 34 at 3. As a result, Plaintiff anticipates several disruptions and delays
9       will occur in these proceedings, including, but not limited to, ones related to discovery, motions
10      to compel, and dispositive motions. See id. at 4. Plaintiff also states that he has been placed on a
11      two to three-week orientation, and he anticipates being locked in his cell for twenty-four hours a
12      day until he completes it. Id. Finally, Plaintiff states that currently he has no direct access to 13      legal authorities and case law, and he has no access to the prison law library's resources and will
14      not until he completes the orientation. ECF No. 34 at 4-5.

15           B.    Defendants' Statement of Non-Opposition

16       Defendants do not oppose Plaintiff's motion for an extension of time. They state that they
17      too need additional time to coordinate with Plaintiff's new housing institution so that they may 18      take his deposition. ECF No. 36 at 1. Defendants however state that they neither concede to nor
19      comment on the factual bases Plaintiff has alleged in support of his request. Id. To the extent
20      that the deadline to complete discovery is extended up to and including March 4, 2024, and the 21      dispositive motion deadline is extended to May 2, 2024, Defendants state that they do not oppose
22      Plaintiff's motion.

23       II.    DISCUSSION

24       Plaintiff has stated good cause to support a grant of the motion to extend the discovery
25      and dispositive motion deadline dates. To date, Plaintiff has diligently prosecuted this case and 26      his transfer to a different institution supports a finding that the motion has not been made to
27      thwart or delay these proceedings. The fact that Defendants do not oppose Plaintiff's
28

1 motion and will also benefit from an extension of the deadlines further supports a grant of the
2 motion. Therefore, the discovery and dispositive motions will be extended by thirty days.

3 Accordingly, IT IS HEREBY ORDERED that:

4 1. Plaintiff's motion to extend the discovery and dispositive motion deadline dates (ECF
5 No. 34) is GRANTED;

6 2. The date for the close of discovery and motions to compel is EXTENDED from 7 February 2, 2024, to March 4, 2024, and

8 3. The due date for dispositive motions is EXTENDED from April 2, 2024, to May 2, 9 2024.

10 All other directives in the discovery and scheduling order issued August 2, 2023
11 (ECF No. 24) are to remain in full force and effect.

12 IT IS SO ORDERED.
